

The Art Center is here for you... and because of YOU!

Artability: Arts for All programming

Andrew Roberts Gray, Glenwood Springs

Be a benefactor and help your Art Center today.

Thanks to generous leaders and donors like you, the WCCA can:

- Build signature exhibits that showcase the talents and visions of local, regional, and national artists.
- Offer up-to-date technical equipment to better serve exhibitors, students, and speakers.
- Bring in visual and performing artists from around the country for both adult and youth programs.
- Provide exhibition spaces that can accommodate works of any scale and create a magical experience through intentionally choreographed layouts. The Art Center cultivates spaces where all art is welcome.
- Maintain and collect a visual record of Colorado's changing landscapes, ideas, generational interests, and most prominent artists.
- Collaborate with community art clubs and Colorado Mesa University for unique exhibitions that bring in the diverse voices of jurors and up-and-coming curators.

The Western Slope deserves a beautiful, workable Art Center. In 1953 our founders established something beautiful. Now is the time to cultivate what they planted and exceed all expectations. It is up to every generation to make the WCCA their own.

Mail in Donation Form (Not for membership renewal).

Yes!! You can count on me today.

- I am enclosing an additional gift of _____.
- I will be giving a gift of membership.
- I am interested in discussing a planned gift. Please call me.

Name: _____

Telephone: _____

Address: _____

E-mail: _____

City/State: _____ Zip: _____

__My check is enclosed. Please charge my ____ Visa __Master Card

Account #: _____ Expiration date: _____

Signature _____